Education Queensland International's (EQI) High School Preparation Program (HSP) is an intensive English language course for international students. It is designed to prepare students for high school study.

Students who complete EQI's HSP Program develop their English proficiency, academic language and gain study skills for successful entry into a Queensland Government high school.

EQI HSP provides students with:

- a carefully selected homestay family
- a safe and secure study environment
- the support and guidance of caring staff
- small classes of no more than 18 students
- the experience of a Queensland high school routine
- a strong, high-quality program.

Under the support and guidance of teachers, students acquire:

- a strong understanding of English through a minimum of 20 hours of instruction per week
- correct academic language needed in the majority of high school subjects
- vocabulary for mathematics, science, studies of society and environment, technology and literature
- confidence in speaking with other students and teachers in English

The program offers:

- airport reception on first arrival
- orientation program
- organised homestay
- 24-hour emergency telephone assistance
- caring school staff support
- regular progress reports
- English language assessment on arrival and exit
- excursions and sporting activities.

Assessment tasks may include:

- exams
- essay writing
- report style assignments
- spoken (oral) tasks
- research assignments

“HSP helped me a lot in shaping my ability of using English, and filled me with all the skills that I need when entering mainstream. Teachers are good support of my study. They’re always there to help me when I needed it.”

– Steven from Vietnam
Indooroopilly State High School

“My HSP experience was excellent because I got to meet a lot of friends from different countries, and I got to learn legal terminologies to prepare for my mainstream studies.”

– Yu Fei from Hong Kong
Mitchelton State High School

“The peer environment at my HSP school is fantastic! The teachers and staff are caring, kind and helpful and they make school very special for us. I hope to go to university in Queensland to study about medicine to become a doctor in the future.”

– Keiko from Japan
Whites Hill State College
